

Small Group Questions

Series: Stranger Things

Message: "Lost and Found"

This series will examine several of the odd stories found in the Bible. When we read these accounts, we may wonder, "what was that?" and "what does that have to do with me?" The unusual and miraculous presents a barrier for those outside of faith and raises many questions for those inside of faith in the Jesus of the Bible. We hold a high view of the Bible, believing it is God's inspired, error-free and living word to us. So, we will dive into some challenging passages to see not only what happened so long ago but how those stories relate to us in our day.

During this section of the calendar, we see a higher number of guests join us on Sundays. We believe that increase can also become a reality in our small groups. Our mission is: helping people meet and follow Jesus. That mission can be fulfilled in any aspect of our faith and life, including our small groups. This could be a great time to encourage the group to invite guests into a series that may prove to be intriguing to those curious about faith.

Thank you for serving in your leadership and shepherding role in a small group! You are on the leading edge of the mission.

(Questions to get everyone to participate)

1. What have you borrowed that you still haven't returned?
2. What is the most important thing you ever lost? Did you ever find it?

(Questions based on the primary text)

Read II Kings 6:1-7.

3. What were your first, honest thoughts about this story when you read it?
4. Complete the sentence: "The point of this story is..."?
5. What does this story teach us about the smaller issues of life and God's involvement in those?
6. Agree or disagree: If it's big enough to worry about it's big enough to pray about? Why?
7. Why doesn't God answer every prayer or need in the world – like people who are starving and are praying for food?
